It's easy for Christians to feel overwhelmed and helpless in our godless culture. When the faith of the next generation is threatened and challenged, we must respond by embracing godly character. Embracing godly character means exploring how to center our lives on God's Word and promises. It means learning how the Christian community of old responded to similar cultural challenges. And it means being rooted in the identity God has given us through Christ.