Luther perceptively notes in the Large Catechism: “He who has money and possessions feels secure and is joyful and undismayed as though he were sitting in the midst of Paradise. On the other hand, he who has no money doubts and is despondent, as though he knew of no God. Very few people can be found who are of good cheer and who neither mourn nor complain if they lack Mammon.”
\textit{(Concordia, LC I:7–9)}

Ah, the challenge to our flesh which wants to SEE tomorrow’s daily bread and know where it is coming from, instead of trusting in God to provide. It is a matter of the heart, and the great weakness of our faith. Yet, repeatedly in the Scriptures God would teach His people to trust in His provision for their need and not to fret about tomorrow’s needs today. Let’s examine some passages from God’s Holy Word to comfort us and strengthen our faith…