Confession

HOW CHRISTIANS SHOULD BE TAUGHT TO CONFESSION

What are confessions? Confessions have been required of Christians since the apostles. Confession is the declaration of our faith and the public acknowledgment of our sins. Confession is the key to everything else. Confession is the most valuable gift God gives. Rather than be accused of denying Christ, it is better to be accused of being a sinner and a failing Christian. Confession is the key to everything else. Confession is the most valuable gift God gives. Rather than be accused of denying Christ, it is better to be accused of being a sinner and a failing Christian.

Who are these? All those who are true Christians, who have been baptized and are part of the Christian community.

Where are these? Most confessions are written in the Bible. However, many are also written in church and塌法.