To my children, Emily, Anna, Erin, Abigail, and Jonathan, with whom I love to share Christmas joys and laughter!

This book is also dedicated to all who interact with young children. Read and enjoy this rhythmic telling of our Savior’s birth. Allow the children the creative freedom to celebrate this story of God’s grace in song, dance, and drama. One reading of this story-book and the children will be eager to say it and sing it and tell it to others.

A joyful Christmas sharing will happen!
Mary! Mary!
what do you see?

I see a donkey carrying me.
Donkey! Donkey!

I see Joseph gently leading me.

what do you see?
Joseph! Joseph!

What do you see?

I see an innkeeper welcoming me.
Wise Man! Wise Man!
What do you see?

I see baby Jesus smiling at me.
God’s Child! God’s Child!

What do YOU see?
