Psalm 14

Trinity 25

Henry V. Gerike

The first time the choir sings the Refrain, repeated immediately by the congregation. Thereafter the congregation sings the Refrain.

Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of His people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

1 The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.”* They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man,* to see if there are any who understand, who seek Him after God.

3 They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt;* there is none who does good, not even one.

4 Have they no knowledge, all the evil-doers* who eat up My people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?
5 There they are in great terror,* for God is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You would shame the plans of the poor,* but the LORD is his refuge.
7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!* When the LORD restores the fortunes of His people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.
8 Glory be to the Father and to the Son* and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning,* is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm 74:4, 2a

1 Your foes have roared in the midst of your meeting place;* they set up their own signs for signs.
2 Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,* which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your heritage.
